

World Gas Conference 2022

23 May 2022 - 27 May 2022

The World Gas Conference, conducted by the International Gas Union (IGU) since 1931, is the world's largest and most important global gas industry event where thousands of industrial and political leaders, gas executives, specialists and exhibitors gather together every three years in the host destination.

The 28th World Gas Conference (WGC 2022) takes place in Daegu, the energy city of Korea in May 2022. Hosted by the Korea Gas Union and supported by the Korean Government, host partner KOGAS, Daegu Metropolitan City and the National Organising Committee (NOC), this four-day conference and exhibition will be an immersive week of gas industry contents and innovation with 500+ speakers in 70 sessions, 350+ exhibitors and 12,000+ global attendees from over 90 countries.

WGC 2022 will bring together a host of opportunities for attendees to learn, share, connect and do deals within the global gas market while shaping the global energy agenda and discussing the role of natural gas in a sustainable future.
